

Seminar series - Michaelmas Term 2018

Thursdays 1pm-2pm (*from 18th October – 2pm start on 11th October)

Richard Doll Building Lecture Theatre, Old Road Campus, OX3 7LF

Conveners: Caroline Potter & Stanley Ulijaszek

Week 1

11th October*
2pm – 3pm

Harry Rutter

Professor of Global Public Health, University of Bath

'Chess, not chequers'

Week 2

18th October

Charlotte Albury

Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences, University of Oxford

'Discussing weight management in primary care – insights from conversation analysis of the BWeL trial'

Week 3

25th October

Marijana Todorčević

Oxford Centre for Diabetes, Endocrinology and Metabolism (OCDEM)

'Function of fat. What are the determinants and does it matter?'

Week 4

1st November

Wendy Wills

Professor of Food and Public Health, University of Hertfordshire

'Revealing later life vulnerabilities through the study of food practices'

Week 5

NO SEMINAR

Week 6

15th November

Per Høgh Poulsen

Department of Occupational Medicine, Herring Hospital, Denmark

'Psychosocial inequality, insecurity and overweight/obesity in a Danish Youth Cohort'

Week 7

22nd November

Lauren Bandy

Nuffield Department of Population Health, University of Oxford

'Assessing the reformulation efforts of soft drink companies in the UK'

Week 8

29th November

Cecilia Lindgren

Professor of Genomic Endocrinology & Metabolism, University of Oxford

'Genomics of common obesity'